LONDON, June 19.

WHEN the Sheriffs were at St. James's on Wednesday laſt, the City Remembrancer, after having informed Lord March, the Lord in waiting, of the buſineſs they came upon, in order to prevent any freſh altercation happening touching his admittance into the cloſet, he ſtated what had been the immemorial uſage of his office in that inſtance, and deſired to know whether the repulſe he had met with before, was by deſign or not? The Lord anſwered, by deſign. The Sheriffs deſired Lord March to inform his Majeſty of the antient uſage, and hoped to know his Majeſty's pleaſure, whether the Remembrancer ſhould be admitted or not. Lord March immediately acquainted the King therewith, and ſoon after a Page informed the Sheriffs, that it was his Majeſty's pleaſure for the Remembrancer to be admitted.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble ADDRESS, REMONSTRANCE and PETITION of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WHEN your Majeſty's moſt faithful ſubjects, the citizens of London, whoſe loyalty and affection has been ſo often and ſo effectually proved and experienced by the illuſtrious houſe of Brunſwick, are labouring under the weight of that diſpleaſure which your Majeſty has been adviſed to lay upon them, in the anſwer given from the throne to their late humble application; we feel ourſelves conſtrained, with all humility, to approach the royal father of his people.

Conſcious, Sire, of the pureſt ſentiments of veneration which they entertain for your Majeſty's perſon, we are deeply concerned, that what the law allows, and the conſtitution teaches, hath been miſconſtrued by miniſters, inſtruments of that influence which ſhakes the realm, into diſreſpect to your Majeſty.

Perplexed and aſtoniſhed as we are, by the awful ſentence of cenſure lately paſſed upon this city, in your Majeſty's anſwer from the throne; we cannot, without ſurrendering all that is dear to Engliſhmen, forbear, moſt humbly to ſupplicate, that your Majeſty will deign to grant a more favourable interpretation to this dutiful, though perſevering, claim of our invaded birth rights; nothing doubting that the benignity of your Majeſty's nature will, to our unſpeakable comfort, at length break through all the ſecret and viſible machinations to which the city of London owes its late ſevere repulſe; and that your kingly juſtice, and fatherly tenderneſs, will diſclaim the malignant and pernicious advice which ſuggeſted the anſwer we deplore: An advice of moſt dangerous tendency; inaſmuch as thereby the exerciſe of the cleareſt rights of the ſubjects, namely, to petition the King for redreſs of grievances, to complain of the violation of the freedom of election, and to pray for a diſſolution of parliament, to point out mal-practices in adminiſtration, and to urge the removal of evil miniſters, hath, under the generality of one compendious word, been indiſcriminately checked with reprimand; and your Majeſty's afflicted citizens of London have heard, from the throne itſelf, that the contents of their humble addreſs, remonſtrance and petition, laying their complaints and injuries at the feet of their Sovereign, as father of his people, able and willing to redreſs their grievances, cannot but be conſidered by your Majeſty, as diſreſpectful to yourſelf, injurious to your parliament, and irreconcileable to the principles of the conſtitution.

Your Majeſty cannot diſapprove, that we here aſſert the cleareſt principles of the conſtitution, againſt the inſidious attempt of evil counſellors, to perplex, confound, and ſhake them: We are determined to abide by thoſe rights and liberties, which our forefathers bravely vindicated, at the ever-memorable revolution, and which their ſons will ever reſolutely defend. We therefore now renew, at the foot of the throne, our claim to the indiſpenſable right of the ſubjects—a full and free unmutilated parliament legally choſen in all its members;—a right which this Houſe of Commons have manifeſtly violated, depriving, at their will and pleaſure, the county of Middleſex of one of its legal repreſentatives, and arbitrarily nominating, as a Knight of the Shire, a perſon not elected by a majority of the freeholders. As the only conſtitutional means of reparations, now left for the injured electors of Great-Britain, we implore, with the moſt urgent ſupplications, the diſſolution of this preſent parliament, the removal of evil miniſters, and the total extinction of that fatal influence, which has cauſed ſuch national diſcontent.

In the mean time, Sire, we offer our conſtant prayers to Heaven, that your Majeſty may reign, as Kings can only reign, in and by the hearts of a loyal, dutiful and free people.

This Day is publiſhed,

CHARLES-TOWN, MAY 18, 1770.

Notice is hereby Given,

To all whom it may Concern,

THAT Mr. WILLIAM BAKER, of CHARLES-TOWN, Merchant, hath aſſigned all his Shop GOODS, WARES, and MERCHANDIZES, to the Subſcribers, in Truſt for Meſſrs. SMITH & HUNT, Merchants of LONDON; and all his Debts, Negroes, and other Effects, for the Payment of ſuch of his Creditors as ſhall within twelve Months from this Day, conſent and agree to receive a Dividend of their Debts in Average and Proportion, as far as the Money received by the Subſcribers for that Purpoſe ſhall extend, and thereupon execute General Releaſes of their Demands againſt the ſaid WILLIAM BAKER; and the Creditors who do not comply with theſe Terms, are by the Aſſignment expreſſly excluded from any Share of the Money ariſing from the ſaid Debts, Negroes, and other Effects: thoſe Creditors therefore who are willing to accept a Dividend, upon the Terms above mentioned, are deſired to ſignify ſuch their Conſent, and tranſmit their Accompts duly atteſted, within the Time above limited: And all Perſons indebted to the ſaid WILLIAM BAKER, are requeſted forthwith to ſettle and pay their ſaid Debts, to one or other of us the Subſcribers.

WILLIAM BURROWS, or [3. m.] JOHN LLOYD.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 26.

ACCORDING to our laſt Accounts from Hiſpaniola, which are dated the 11th of June, not only Port-au-Prince, but alſo Leogan, Petit-Guavre, and all the Sugar Works in thoſe Diſtricts, were totally deſtroyed, by the Earthquake of the 3d, Shocks whereof continued to be felt on the 11th: That upwards of 1600 Perſons had been buried in the Ruins: And that the Survivors were under great Apprehenſions of a Famine. Theſe are all the further Particulars we have yet been able to learn of that dreadful Cataſtrophe.

We are informed, that on the 22d of laſt Month, the Virginians extended their Oeconomical Plan and Non-Importation Agreement, agreeable to thoſe of this Province. And that ſome General Reſolutions were to be framed laſt Week by the Inhabitants of North-Carolina, to manifeſt their Unanimity with the Reſt of the Colonies.

Inſtead of the Diviſion in the Colonies looked for by the Miniſtry by next Winter, there is great Reaſon to believe their Union will be more certain and complete.

On Friday laſt, His Majeſty's Packet-Boat Sandwich, commanded by Captain Richard Nottingham, ſailed with the Mails for Falmouth.

Laſt Sunday Morning Mr. Jonathan Sarrazin, was married to Mrs. Sarah Priſleau, Relict of the late Elijah Priſleau, Eſq.

On Monday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, agreeable to their Prorogation. And the ſame Day, were farther prorogued, by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, to Tueſday the 14th of Auguſt, then to meet and ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs.

Although we have a Proſpect of a far greater Crop than ever was known, of RICE, CORN, and INDICO, unleſs ſome extraordinary Accident ſhould happen in either of the two enſuing Months; we are informed, that the neighbouring Province of North-Carolina has ſuffered exceedingly, by exceſſive Rains, inſomuch that having loſt moſt of the Corn for their Subſiſtance, they planted Wheat, and are now loſing even that, by the Ruſt.

Yeſterday died, univerſally regretted, after a lingering Indiſpoſition, and in the 71ſt Year of his Age, Iſaac Mazyck, Eſq; deſcended from an antient and reſpectable Family in the Iſle of Rhé, that fled from the Perſecutions in France, and ſettled in this Country about the Year 1685. He was born in this Province, and always bore the moſt amiable Character, as well in a public as a private Capacity; to evince which, we need only ſay, that he ſo highly enjoyed the good Opinion and Confidence of the People, as to have been elected a Member in every ſucceſſive Aſſembly of the Repreſentatives, from the Year 1733 to this Time.

This Morning ſailed for Liſbon, the Ship London, Capt. Curling, having on board as Paſſengers, the Rev. Charles Martyn (late Rector of St. Andrew's Pariſh) and Family, and the Lady of the Hon. John Drayton, Eſq; who intend from thence for England.

TWO ISLANDS, in Alatamahaw-River; one known by the Name of CAMBER's-ISLAND, containing 1600 Acres of the best River Swamp Tide Land, inferior to none of the Islands in Savannah-River for Rice, situated in a proper Medium betweens the Over-flowing of the Salt Tides and the Inundations of the Freshes, with good Navigation for Vessels of 100 Tons: On which may be settled four Plantations, one of which is begun, and 30 Acres already cleared.

The other Island, known by the Name of WEREAT's-ISLAND, containing 600 Acres, separated from Camber's by the main Stream of the River; on which is a fine Knoll of high Land for a Settlement.—This Island will make two excellent Rice Plantations.

The Navigation will admit Vessels of any Burthen from one Inlet to the other within Land; and the Island abounds with great Quantities of Live-Oak, of the best Kind, for Ship-building.

Two Thousand Acres of Land on Savannah-River, at a Place known by the Name of MATHEWES's-BLUFF, joining to Land granted to Anthony Mathewes, deceased, now the Property of David Græme, Esq; and Lands belonging to Daniel Blake, Esq. STOLEN, or broke ADRIFT,

From the Wharf of Charles Elliott, Esq; on Monday the 2d Inst.

A CYPRESS CANOW, 23 Feet 3 Inches long, and 3 Feet 7 Inches wide, rows with four Oars, has two Holes in her Fore-castle for her Masts, and two Holes in her After Thaughts, for her Main-Mast, to shift occasionally; payed over outside and in with Spanish Brown, her Rudder-Iron broke below, and part of her Chain. Whoever takes up the said CANOW, or can inform me where I may send for her, shall be rewarded for their Trouble. JOHN BOOMER.

WHEREAS SIMON FRANKS, by an Advertisement in Mr. CROUCH's last Paper, set forth that I, MARGARET-JACOB-ENNER FRANKS, his Wife, eloped from him, on Saturday the 7th Day of July Instant, without any just Cause, and thereby forewarns all Persons not to credit me on his Account: I therefore, in Order to shew the Public a true State of my supposed Elopement, do solemnly declare, I never eloped from my said Husband, but that my new being absent from him, was occasioned by his most cruel and inhuman Treatment to me, by his always getting in Liquor, and putting me in Fear of my Life; by his severe Threats, Blows, and turning me out of Doors, in the Dead of Night, leaving me, and a poor helpless Infant, whom I had by a former Husband, naked, and exposed to the Inclemency of the Weather; which put me under the disagreeable Necessity of applying to a Magistrate for a Peace-Warrant, before whom he consented, that I should live from him undisturbed; and that he would deliver me all my Cloaths, which he accordingly did, before Witnesses.

MARGARET-JACOB-ENNER FRANKS.
